The César Chávez Scholarship Fund is pleased to sponsor the Tam Tran Scholarship, which has been set up to support undocumented students who are Rhode Island residents to continue on their academic path. It is our hope that this scholarship can respond to the lack of financial assistance provided to students who do not have the legal documentation but wish to attend college in the United States. In particular, we seek to support undocumented students that have met the rigorous academic requirements asked of them and hold the academic promise to continue to a college or university.

Eligibility Criteria. Applicant:

- Must be a Rhode Island resident on the date of your application.
- Must be an undocumented student, or someone who was born outside of the U.S. but lives here without the legal permission of the federal government.
- Must be or will be a high school/GED graduate who will enroll for the first time in an accredited college or university in the U.S. or Puerto Rico for the 2013-2014 academic year. Applications will also be accepted from students currently enrolled at CCRI, RIC or URI for the 2015 summer or fall sessions.
- Must demonstrate financial need – i.e. you may send us your FAFSA SAR score.
- Must demonstrate academic potential and promise-your transcript and essay will reflect this.
- Must demonstrate leadership qualities – your essay will reflect this.
- Recipients must agree to volunteer to attend meetings and/or speak with other undocumented students seeking advice during the first year after receiving the award – you must sign an agreement.
- As time allows, recipients will be expected to participate in CASO events and commit to community service or professional development activities throughout the year.
- Re-applicants must show that you have fulfilled the requirements as listed above, specifically your willingness to volunteer, attend community meetings and you will be asked to write in your essay about community service and leadership activities you've accomplished.

Please ensure that you provide all the items below and only those items. Failure to do so can result in disqualification of your application.

 - Should you be awarded a scholarship, we will ask for proof of college enrollment once you are accepted.
 - You must agree to stay in touch with us during the first semester after receiving the award.
 - YOU WILL NOT RECEIVE YOUR SCHOLARSHIP CHECK until you have a one-on-one interview with someone from the committee.
